WHEN YOU WRITE A STORY

Tips for Writing Dialogue:

Good writers use dialogue to make their stories lively and interesting:

- ✓ Each speaker is identified and quotation marks are used.

The umpire yelled, "That's a foul!"
"Sir, I did not mean to kick him," said Tom.

- ✓ Speech is life-like and sounds natural.
- ✓ Speakers may not always talk in complete sentences.
- ✓ Different situations call for different styles of dialogue.
